

Haematology Association of Ireland (HAI): Abstract Submission Guidelines

<http://www.haematologyireland.ie>

Submission deadline: Friday 30th August 2024

Abstract submission to HAI implies that ALL authors have read and reviewed the submission. All authors must be afforded an opportunity to review and comment on the submitted abstract in advance of the deadline. Abstracts may be withdrawn but not altered after the deadline. Nursing & Allied Health Submission Deadline is: Friday 13 September. Therefore all abstracts being submitted by Nursing/AHP members after 30th August must be sent directly to sinead@sineadcassidy.com

Important: When submitting your abstract, please ensure to only include contact details for the person who will be presenting the submission at the conference.

Whilst reports of individuals cases (case reports) with unique scientific or educational value will be considered, they must enhance clinical practice or diagnostic understanding to be accepted. In the interest of maintaining high scientific standards only those abstracts passing peer review will be accepted.

Abstract should be submitted with font size of the text not smaller than 11. The initials and surname of the authors without titles or degrees should appear below the title. The departments, institutions and cities should be listed next.

The abstract should include the following elements:

- 1) Title: (in block capitals)
- 2) Introduction/Background: a brief discussion of the background or rationale of the study and/or questions addressed
- 3) Materials and methods: the experimental approach, materials, and methods used in the study
- 4) Results: the data and results obtained in the study
- 5) Conclusions: the conclusions and/or implications of the results

The main body of the abstract must not exceed 500 words and should be single line spacing. No tables/graphs or references permitted.

You will receive confirmation of your abstract submission from the online submission system. If you do not receive this confirmation, your abstract has not been submitted correctly. Any issues, please contact Sinead on: sinead@sineadcassidy.com
