

Irish Nephrology Society
Abstract Submission Guidelines

Submission deadline: Friday 12th April 2024

Abstracts will be reviewed by a panel of expert reviewers and may be selected for oral presentation.

Please select the abstract category:

- Clinical Science
- Basic Science
- Paediatrics

Submission of an abstract to the Irish Nephrology Society carries with it the implication that ALL authors have read and reviewed the submission. All authors must be afforded an opportunity to review and comment on the submitted abstract in advance of the deadline. Abstracts may be withdrawn but not altered after the deadline.

Important: When submitting your abstract, please ensure to only include contact details for presenting author only.

Whilst reports of individual cases (case reports) with unique scientific or educational value will be considered, they must enhance clinical practice or diagnostic understanding to be accepted. In the interest of maintaining high scientific standards only those abstracts passing peer review will be accepted. Submissions are limited to one abstract per Lead Author.

Abstract should be submitted with font size of the text not smaller than 11. The initials and surname of the authors should appear below the title without titles or degrees, e.g. J Murphy. The departments, institutions and cities should be listed next.

The abstract should include the following elements:

- 1) Title: (in block capitals)
- 2) Introduction/Background: a brief discussion of the background or rationale of the study and/or questions addressed
- 3) Materials and methods: the experimental approach, materials, and methods used in the study
- 4) Results: the data and results obtained in the study
- 5) Conclusions: the conclusions and/or implications of the results

The main body of the abstract must not exceed 350 words (this does not include abstract title, authors) and should be single line spacing. No references/tables/graphs are permitted. When using abbreviations, spell out the full name when first cited.

Please note that references should not be included on the abstract submission.

You will receive confirmation of your abstract submission from the online submission system. If you do not receive this confirmation, your abstract has not been submitted correctly. Please do not assume that your abstract has been automatically submitted until you receive your acknowledgement email from the online submission system.
